2019 Joe Louis Barrow, Jr. Life Skills & Leadership Academy
July 24 – July 30, 2019 | Boise State University | Boise, ID

- Each chapter may nominate up to three participants. We encourage the makeup of the three applications to reflect the diversity (age, ethnicity, gender etc.) of the chapter. If two or more applications are submitted, at least one applicant must be of a diverse background (e.g. gender, ethnicity and/or race). Qualification for attendance at the Academies will be judged on the completeness and quality of the applications.
- Participants who attended the Academy previously are not eligible

Application Process:

Applications will be submitted online at thefirsttee.fluidreview.com; please follow the instructions in the “Quick Start Guide” on how to complete this process. The online application will consist of the following:

- Application Code
- General Information Form
- Family/Medical Information Form
- Golf Resume, School & Community Activities Chart, & Four (4) Typed Essays
- Letter of Recommendation (to be uploaded by the participant)
- Chapter Participation Survey (to be completed by a chapter representative and uploaded by the participant)
- Social Media Code of Conduct & Code of Conduct
- Liability Form & Model Release Form

Below is a copy of the application you will need to complete online; please refer to the application below to make sure that you have all of the information you need to complete your application online. Online application MUST be submitted by The First Tee participant. The First Tee will NOT accept correspondence from families of participants. The deadline to apply online is April 8, 2019 by 11:59 EST.

Selection Process:

Following the closing date April 8, 2019, a judging committee made up of home office and chapter staff will review the above items and identify candidates that will be invited to the Life Skill & Leadership Academy by assigning point values to the categories. These participants will be notified on Academy selections on May 29, 2019.

Air Transportation and Lodging:

The First Tee home office will reimburse each Academy attendee’s chapter up to $400 per domestic round trip ticket. Each chapter/participant is responsible for booking his/her own airfare by the posted deadline. If a participant withdraws from the Academy after his/her ticket has been purchased, the chapter will not be reimbursed for the ticket. All ground transportation, lodging and meals will be provided for the duration of the program. Participants will be housed in the Chaffee Hall dormitories at Boise State University. Participants within 150 miles of Boise, ID must be driven to the event. Those within driving distance are eligible for up to $150 in mileage reimbursement.

Social Media Code of Conduct

The First Tee Code of Conduct requires participants to demonstrate the Nine Core Values in their everyday lives and, in particular, to show respect for oneself, others and your surroundings. While these behaviors are expected in face-to-face situations, you must also abide by The First Tee Code of Conduct and The First Tee Nine Core Values while using any social media platform to communicate with other chapter participants or with anyone about The First Tee.

Additionally, The First Tee's copyrighted words, logos and trademarks may not be used in any manner on social media pages that would make it appear to be represented by The First Tee. For example, you cannot create a social media group or page that appears to be sponsored by The First Tee.

If you fail to adhere to The First Tee Code of Conduct and the Nine Core Values, there will be consequences which may include cancellation of benefits and being prohibited from participating in future participant events hosted by The First Tee home office. The home office will also involve parents and chapter leaders in these discussions as needed.

The First Tee considers social media to include all personal websites and all forms of online community activities such as online blogs, social networks, message boards, conversation pages, chat rooms, emails and cell phone texting.
