

2019 John Deere Power for Good Scholarship Contest

Application Deadline: April 1, 2019

Overview:

The purpose of this contest is to recognize the efforts of young men and women who, like John Deere, have a passion for making their surroundings better. Applicants will submit a written essay for the opportunity to win a $5,000 college scholarship plus the opportunity to be a VIP guest and pro-am participant at the John Deere Classic in Silvis, IL. The essay should focus on how the students are a 'Power for Good' through service to their communities, schools, and/or chapter.

Participant Selection:

Three (3) participants from The First Tee will each win a one-time $5,000 college scholarship plus a VIP experience at the John Deere Classic (JDC) in Silvis, IL. If selected, participants must be available to travel to Silvis, IL July 7-11, 2019.

Eligibility Requirements:

For participants of The First Tee to be eligible for the John Deere Power for Good Scholarship Contest, they must meet ALL of the following requirements:

- Age 14 – 18. Applicants must reach their 14th birthday on or before the first day of the JDC and not reached their 19th birthday by the conclusion of the event.
- Acceptable Golf Ability – USGA handicap of 18 or better
- Minimum 3.0 GPA based on a 4.0 scale
- Classified as a high school freshman, sophomore, junior or senior as of Spring semester 2019
- Active in The First Tee Participant Database upon submittal of application
- Entered in The First Tee participant database for a minimum of three years, at Birdie level or higher, at the time of application deadline
- Chapters must have signed their contract at least 3 years before application deadline in order to submit applicants
- Each chapter may nominate up to two participants

Application Process:

Applications will be submitted online at thefirsttee.fluidreview.com; please follow the instructions in the "Quick Start Guide" on how to complete this process. The online application will consist of the following:

- Application Code
- General Information Form
- Family/Medical Information Form
- Golf Resume, School & Community Activities Chart, Letter of Recommendation & One (1) Typed Essay
- Chapter Participation Survey (to be completed by a chapter representative and uploaded by the participant)
- Social Media Code of Conduct & Code of Conduct
- Model Release & Publicity Release Forms

2019 John Deere Power for Good Scholarship Contest

Below is a copy of the application you will need to complete online; please refer to the application below to make sure that you have all of the information you need to complete your application online. Online application MUST be submitted by The First Tee participant. The First Tee will NOT accept correspondence from families of participants. The deadline to apply online is April 1, 2019.

Selection Process:

Following the closing date April 1, 2019, a judging committee made up of home office, chapter, and John Deere staff will review the above items and identify the two scholarship winners by assigning point values to the categories. These participants will be notified May 8, 2019.

Air Transportation and Lodging: Accommodations for four-days/three-nights and air transportation for the participant and one adult chaperone will be covered as part of the The John Deere Classic experience. Details to follow once participants have been selected. If selected, participants must be available to travel to Silvis, IL July 7-11, 2019.

Social Media Code of Conduct

The First Tee Code of Conduct requires participants to demonstrate the Nine Core Values in their everyday lives and, in particular, to show respect for oneself, others and your surroundings. While these behaviors are expected in face-to-face situations, you must also abide by The First Tee Code of Conduct and The First Tee Nine Core Values while using any social media platform to communicate with other chapter participants or with anyone about The First Tee.

Additionally, The First Tee's copyrighted words, logos and trademarks may not be used in any manner on social media pages that would make it appear to be represented by The First Tee. For example, you cannot create a social media group or page that appears to be sponsored by The First Tee.

If you fail to adhere to The First Tee Code of Conduct and the Nine Core Values, there will be consequences which may include cancellation of benefits and being prohibited from participating in future participant events hosted by The First Tee home office. The home office will also involve parents and chapter leaders in these discussions as needed.

The First Tee considers social media to include all personal websites and all forms of online community activities such as online blogs, social networks, message boards, conversation pages, chat rooms, emails and cell phone texting.
